SHARING INFORMATION

Note from the Rector's Warden

A Family Story

I thought that I would begin my message this week by recounting a recent conversation that I had with my stepdaughter, Kim. Kim lives in Southern New Jersey with her husband, Mark, and their two young daughters. Kim and Mark have busy careers and their daughters are thirteen and eight, which adds to their somewhat hectic lifestyle. In our conversation, Kim observed that they don't get to church as often as she thinks they should. I responded that given the demands of their family life, work life and social life, it was understandable.

Then Kim surprised me by saying "We should go to church more often. When we begin Sunday by going to church as a family, we do more things together the rest of the day."

Something to Celebrate

As part of the Bishop's visit on Sunday, August 26th, Mark and Tammy Bubb will be received into the Episcopal Church. Some will recall that their son, Austin, was baptized on Sunday, December 17, 2017 during the Bishop's last visit to St. Luke's. Mark and Tammy have helped us in many ways. Please plan on joining us in celebrating a fine day for the Bubbs and St. Luke's.

This Sunday's Service

We have decided to change this Sunday from Morning Prayer to a full Holy Eucharist service. The supply priest will be The Rev. Laurence Wainwright-Maks, who comes highly recommended by The Rev. Canon Johnnie Ross. Please join us in welcoming him to St. Luke's.

See you in church!

Summer Serenades returns to Brockport

The annual Summer Serenades music series returns again to the Village of Brockport's Welcome Center on the Erie Canal just east of Main Street. Every Thursday evening in August (6:30 p.m.) a professional group performs in this scenic and acoustically strong venue. The atmosphere is always casual – people bring chairs or sit on the grass, often with snacks purchased on Main Street. The rain location will be St. Luke's Episcopal Church, 14 State Street. The Greater Brockport Development Corporation sponsors a lineup of local musicians, homegrown or newly established residents. This series is made possible solely with the generous support of many local businesses and individuals.

- August 9 – The John Nyerges Jazz Quartet. John, another local musician, and his friends are back this year after a very warm and appreciative response from the audience last season. John features original music and arrangements from recognized jazz greats.
- August 16 – The Geezers. These professional musicians perform a wide range of lively toe tapping Roots music.
- August 23 – Zak's Pak. If you like Blues, Rhythm, and Rock n' Roll, you will embrace the music of this popular local band.
